D. Wildwood management reserves the right to inspect the apartment or townhome (with proper advanced notice) to determine if there may be damage from the pet. If damage is found, the resident will be given notice and repairs will be made by Wildwood management, management will bill the Tenant(s) for damages.

E. Owners of Animals are required to reimburse Wildwood for the actual cost of any and all damages caused by his/her pet(s) or service animal.

F. Wildwood is not responsible for any actions, injuries or damages caused by any tenant's animal(s). Animals are the sole responsibility of the owner. Wildwood assumes no liability for failure of the animal owner to control of the pet. Any injury or harm to other persons, animals, or property is the sole responsibility and liability of the animal owner. It is recommended that owners purchase liability insurance for this purpose.

G. Animals must be appropriately and effectively restrained and under the control of a responsible individual at all times when not inside the resident's unit, dogs and cats must be on a hand-held leash and under the owner's control at all times.

H. Pets shall use common areas for the purpose of passing to the outside of the building.

I. Tenant is fully and solely responsible for promptly cleaning up and properly disposing of any waste or droppings, both inside and outside of their units. Pet waste must be bagged and disposed of, litter boxes need to be double bagged tied shut and all waste put in the dumpster. Repeated failure by a resident to take responsibility for waste disposal shall be deemed a violation of the lease and subject to a $5 fine per occurrence.

J. Tenant shall take adequate precautions to keep the apartment and surrounding areas free of pet odors, insect infestation, waste and litter, and maintain unit in a sanitary condition at all times.

K. No unauthorized animal(s) may visit or be harbored in any unit owned by Wildwood without prior approval. Tenants are prohibited from feeding stray or wild animals.

L. No animal will be allowed that constitutes a nuisance or threat to any tenant or detracts from any tenant's quiet environment of their unit. A nuisance or threat includes, but is not limited to, noise, smell, animal waste, and aggressive or vicious behavior.

M. In the event your cat, dog, or other animal bites an individual, you must report the event to the appropriate city police and/or health officials and Wildwood Development within twenty-four hours of the bite.

N. Tenant shall not alter the premises, including the unit or patio to create an enclosure for an animal, without permission from Wildwood Development

O. If any animals are left unattended for more than 24 hours they will be considered abandoned, and Wildwood reserves the Right to contact proper authorities and request the removal and safe keeping of what would be considered an abandoned animal.

P. If the health or safety of an animal is threatened by the death or incapacity of the owner, or by other factors that render the animal owner unable to care for the animal, please see section O.

Q. Pet owners are required to maintain renter's insurance during agreement, and Wildwood Development should be listed as an additional insured.

R. An animal which display vicious, dangerous, intimidating behavior, displays symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrates behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of others, shall be referred by Wildwood Development to the appropriate state or local authorities to remove such animal. Such animals are subject to immediate removal from the premises.

S. Violation of any of the foregoing rules will result in a two-day notice to remove the animal from the premises. If this notice is disregarded a thirty-day eviction notice will be issued.

The management of Wildwood Development Apartments encourages residents to value and enjoy their apartments as they would their own home. We believe that residents should be given every opportunity to pursue their interests, consistent with the rights of fellow residents and property owner(s). Our common interest is a safe, pleasant and well-maintained building is best achieved by fostering an attitude of mutual respect and cooperation. Keeping this in mind, we have taken into account the important contribution pets can make to the lives of people who value and appreciate animals. We have also considered the fact that there are people who wish to avoid contact with pets and other animals. This pet policy is designed to protect both pet owners and non-pet owners, and to ensure that the animals themselves receive responsible care. The pet policy applies to all pets kept in the apartment buildings.
